

From Washington to Mattis, our most successful leaders were life-long students of war. In the July-September issue of Armor Magazine, I wrote a piece called *Maneuver Leaders, Self-Study and War*, where I discuss the importance of life-long learning and provide readers with a great resource to start their journey. Please check it out!

Share this:

- Email
- Tweet
-
- Print
- WhatsApp