

By Joe Byerly

Every December I share a list of books that I've read throughout the year with the hope that readers will check them out and consider adding a title or two to their libraries. This list is a testament to my amazing network of friends, colleagues, and leaders who continually pass along book recommendations. They are without a doubt a critical component to my development as a professional. All the book covers below are hyperlinked, so you can click on the picture to learn more about them.
